

Mark Carroll APM

Deputy Chair and Marketing
& Communications
Committee Member

Mark Carroll is President and CEO of the Police Association of South Australia, a position he has held for 14 years. From 2014-2021, Mark also served as President of the Police Federation of Australia – representing more than 60,00 police officers across Australia.

He graduated from the Fort Largs Police Academy in 1986 and went on to serve South Australians as a frontline police officer in Adelaide and in the Yalata Aboriginal Community on the West Coast of South Australia.

A graduate of the University of Adelaide, Mark is highly regarded in South Australia and nationally as a skilled negotiator and an accomplished strategic thinker and tactician. He is also an accomplished media performer.

In recent years, Mark has become a powerful and influential advocate for police officers and their families in the mental health space. His commitment to mental health awareness, education and the eradication of stigma is highly regarded across Australia.

Mark's academic and professional qualifications include:

- » Bachelor of Arts (majoring in Labour Studies)
- » Labour Education Program, Michigan State University
- » Force Science Certification Course, Force Science Institute Chicago
- » Australian Institute of Company Directors - Company Directors' Course

Mark's commitment to professional governance is demonstrated by the board positions he has held including:

- » Australia and New Zealand Council of Police Profession
- » National Police Memorial
- » Police Federation of Australia
- » Police Superannuation Board of South Australia