

Rebecca Wessels

Chair, Diversity & Inclusion
Committee Member, Reconciliation
Action Plan Working Group

Rebecca Wessels is the founder and CEO of the very successful and highly regarded Ochre Dawn Creative Industries. Rebecca brings to the Maxima Board many years' experience in community services, IT and youth work.

As a proud Ngarrindjeri and Peramangk woman, Rebecca is deeply committed to Australia's First Nations communities, storytelling, the preservation of language and culture, ethnicity, diversity and multiculturalism.

Rebecca's unparalleled support of First Nations artists and entrepreneurs has made her a leader on the journey to true Reconciliation. She works collaboratively with small to large corporations, government and non-profit organisations to drive sustainability, authenticity and innovation.

Rebecca is a former Chair of Tandanya National Aboriginal Cultural Institute and is currently a Board Member for Ronald McDonald House Charities SA and South Australia's Entrepreneurship Advisory Board.

As a member of the Maxima Board, Rebecca makes a critical contribution to Maxima's understanding of and commitment to reconciliation and inclusivity.
